Studying the Qur'an is like gathering fruits
from a tree.

First shake the tree, that the ripest might fall.
Then shake each branch and twig,
And then look under every leaf.

With guidance from the Ahlul Bayt - First recite correctly and carefully the Qur'an as a whole to get it's immediate benefits.

Then shake each branch - give attention to each sura,
its content and message.

Then shake each twig - ponder over every aya.

[2:68] They said: Call on your Lord for our sake to make it plain to us what she is. Musa said: He says, Surely she is a cow neither advanced in age nor too young, of middle age between that (and this); do therefore what you are commanded.

[2:69] They said: Call on your Lord for our sake to make it plain to us what her color is. Musa said: He says, Surely she is a yellow cow; her color is intensely yellow, giving delight to the beholders.

[2:70] They said: Call on your Lord for our sake to make it plain to us what she is, for surely to us the cows are all alike, and if Allah please we shall surely be guided aright.

[2:71] Musa said: He says, Surely she is a cow not made submissive that she should plough the land, nor does she irrigate the tilth; sound, without a blemish in her. They said: Now you have brought the truth; so they sacrificed her, though they had not the mind to do (it).
