Introduction TO QUR'AN CITY

Mention the Qur'an and the mental image is of a paperback or hardcover rectangular book in Arabic, which may contain transliteration and /or translation into another language.

Recitation and memorisation are essential, for they are tools of preservation and ensure the continuity of the original text. However, the Qur'an was sent as an essential guidance for a human being to reach their full potential. To engage with the Qur'an, after having learnt to recite, means to start with familiarising oneself with its suwer (chapters), ayaat (verses) and layout.

The challenge was to make this wisdom accessible to one and all by translating it into the contemporary everyday 'language'

When we first embarked upon the journey of Quran City, we were challenging the norms...

The inspirational verse was 66:11 where Allah quotes the dua of Sayyida Aasiya when she said:

"Rabbi! Build for me a house with You in Janna"

To us, this meant investing in real estate in Janna and so began the building of Qur'an City.

What IS QUR'AN CITY?

The Arabic word Surah, used for a chapter of the Qur'an is derived from a verbal root, which means to enclose or surround, and was used in reference to the outer bounds of the wall of an ancient city. It is also used with reference to the stages in the construction of a building.

The concept of buildings and a city representing the Qur'an developed.

A city is made up of many different elements that are working with each other. Together, they form the city's personality, organically working and interlocked together. Just like the buildings in a city, there are similarities and differences between surahs. However, each surah still has its own distinct personality.

As when you know the layout of a city in its entirety, you begin to understand the full picture and are able to take full advantage of all the buildings within.

Similarly, knowing the full picture of Qur'an city and being able to delve into the basics of each individual building, gives greater insight...

With 114 buildings, Qur'an City is divided into 19 suburbs which circle Muhammad City Centre. The placement of the buildings in the suburbs are based on their and/or the opening verse of each chapter (sura).

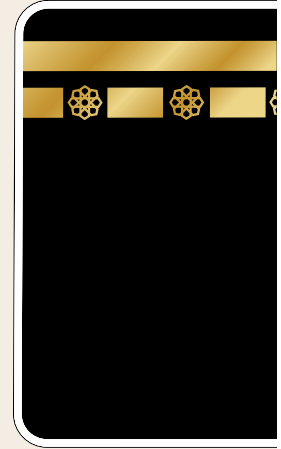

Each building can be distinguished as Makki or Madani through their roof tops. Yellow for Makki and Green for Madani. The chapters revealed in Makka are known as Makki, and the chapters revealed in Madina known as Madani. There are 86 Makkan chapters and 28 Madani chapters.

The distinction between them can be described as the journey from the why? (the nature of belief) to the how? (the manifestation of belief into a way of life which leads towards one's personal best). The presence of Makkan verses in Madani and vice versa shows that why and how are interwoven throughout the journey of life.

MAKKAN SURAH - BEFORE HIJRA (WHY OF RELIGION?)

- The verses (ayaat) are brief and short
- Invitation to submit to Divinity and follow Divine Guidance
- Accountability emphasised on the day of Judgement and consequences of actions
- Janna and Jahannam
- Prophet Adam and Shaytan mentioned
- All the obligatory sajjadaat in Makkan chapters
- Verses addressing humanity (O humankind) in Makkan chapters
- Kallaa (never ever) used only in Makkan chapters
- Of the 29 chapters beginning with Huruful Muqatta'at 26 are Makkan (exceptions being 2,3 and 13)

MADANI SURAH AFTER HIJRA (HOW OF RELIGION?)

- The verses (ayaat) are longer and formal
- Focus on social responsibilities and law
- Hypocrisy mentioned
- Address to 'O you who believe' in Madani chapters (except for Suratul Hijr)
- Address to people of the book in Madani chapters
- Verses about warfare as permission to defend given

Qur'an CITY LEARNING MODULES

The learning (exploring) of Qur'an City is through a modular study programme

1. Learning to recite the Qur'an (QRead 1 & 2)
2. Learning the name of the chapters of the Quran.
3. Looking at the Qur'an as a whole (the whole city) and at the groupings of the chapters (Each suburb and city centre has chapters that are linked to each other eg. Haamidaat all start with the hamd (praise and gratitude of Allah), Musabbihaat all start with declaring His perfection)
4. Learning the names and general features of the chapters (identifying the buildings in Qur'an City. E.g. Each building is built to scale according to the number of ayaat in it and is identified by yellow – revealed in Makka and Green – revealed in Madina)
5. Looking at the major themes identifying the key concepts of each chapter which are reflected in the building floors.
6. Reflecting on the key verses of each section.
