TRUTH: AS-SADIO

The Prophet on a journey made a deal with a seller of a horse and said he would pay him in Madina.

On reaching Madina the trader was offered a higher price and he denied the deal made with the Prophet and he asked the Prophet to bring a witness.

A crowd had now gathered, and the Prophet asked each one of them to be his witness, but all refused saying we were not present when you made the deal.

Khuzayma a companion came to the scene and immediately said, "I bear witness that the horse belongs to you, Ya Rasulallah".

TRUTH: AS-SADIO

1. Why did Khuzayma bear witness that the horse belonged to the Prophet when he was not present when the deal was made between the Prophet and the trader?
2. Write down 3 reasons why we lie?
3. Write down 2 consequences of lying.
4. Write down 1 benefit of telling the truth.

COMPASSION

An old woman had a habit of throwing rubbish on the Prophet (pbuh) whenever he passed from under her house. The Prophet never showed anger at her. The Prophet had to pass her house everyday as it was on the way to the mosque. One day when the Prophet was passing by, the woman did not throw any rubbish. He stopped to inquire about her. The neighbours told him that she was ill.

The Prophet asked permission to see. When he entered the house the woman was very scared and thought the Prophet has come to take his revenge .... Complete the story ( you can act it out or write it).
