

Section 7

AYAAT 186-207

PERSONAL & COMMUNAL LAWS FOR MUSLIMS

No.	LEARNING OBJECTIVE	DETAIL	AYAAT
11	Dua:  (Lack of communication with Allah causes personal chaos)	Dua – To turn the attention of the called one to the caller. “I respond immediately whenever, wherever, whatever...” “O Musa, ask from me in all that you need, fodder for your goat and salt for your dough.” Hadith Qudsi Ref: 7:55, 56 19:3,4 21:90 40:14, 60 42:26	186
12	Don't steal, cheat each other (business practice – law) (1st test of Taqwa)	Don't conduct business using falsehood. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Eg: Don't overprice. 2. Don't use authority unlawfully to cheat others. (Don't dangle money to get close to authority to get your way and short change others.)	188
13	Do things the right way (follow proper protocol) Discard superstitions.	The new  brings in a new month (schedule for year) The entry to Dhulhijja is with Hajj. The entry to month of Ramadhan is fasting. Arab figurative speech – “Approach my life through the front door” (I do things probably) Pre-Islamic Arabs used to enter houses from rear when things didn't go well (Superstitions) 	189
14	Self defence-reclaiming that which was forcefully taken without exceeding limits	PRECURSOR TO BODY (Contextualise) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Don't exceed limits 2. No fighting in Masjidul Haram 3. If they stop – Allah Forgiving and Merciful 4. No hostility or animosity if they stop 5. Four sacred months –  <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. Support war effort financially 	190 - 195 216 - 218