TAYAMMUM IN THE QUR'AN

“.... If you cannot find water, take pure earth and wipe your faces and hands with it; Allah does not wish to put you in any difficulty, but He wishes to purify you...” 5:6

TAYAMMUM DEFINITION

In Fiqh terminology, Tayammum means to wipe the forehead and the back of the hands with earth when Wudhoo and Ghusl are not possible. Tayammum substitutes them.

Tayammum is called Tahara Turbiyya (the tahara of earth)

Wudu and Ghusl are called Tahara Ma'iyya (the tahara of water)

WHEN CAN WE DO TAYAMMUM?

When there is no water and salaa is getting qadhaa.

When using water is harmful to your health or life.

When the time left for salaa to be qadhaa is so little that if you do ghusl or wudhoo, your salaa will become qadha.

THINGS ON WHICH TAYAMMUM CAN BE DONE

It must be:

1. Tahir
2. Mubah
3. Dry

Pebbles

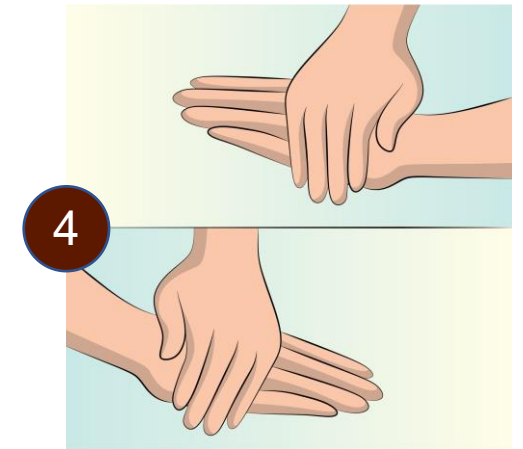

Sand

HOW TO DO TAYAMMUM

4 things are WAJIB in tayammum:

1. Intention (Niyya)
2. Striking or keeping both the palms on the object on which tayammum is valid.
3. Wiping the entire forehead with the palms of both the hands starting from where the hair of one's head grow down to the eyebrows and above the nose. It is recommended that the palms pass over the eyebrows as well.
4. To wipe the back of the right hand with the left hand and then to wipe the back of the left hand with the right hand.
