INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

WEBSITE

- Requirement identified for online material categorised by subject, age , ability of user, language and teaching preference
- Vision to create a complete Q SCHOOL "syllabus" orientated information resource that can be accessed by teachers, parents and students
- Teaching materials and student aids can be produced at a touch of a button by madaris worldwide
- Material to act as home teaching supplements to the "weekly madrasa" session.
- Bringing the Qur'an into daily life through QUR'AN CITY

QUR'AN CITY

QUR'AN CITY

Teaching the structure of the Qur'an through building a city with bricks and understanding the focus and main aspects of each chapter, which is illustrated as a building within the city.

QUR'AN RECITATION

QUR'AN APPRECIATION

CROSS CURRICULAR

SALAA

QSchool was initiated to be able to use the traditional Madrasa teachings and relate them to modern educational principles. The intent was to be able to translate Qur'anic principles into easy understandable values and practices that would allow the nurturing of a Qur'anic community of learners.

THE QFATIMA JOURNEY

1991

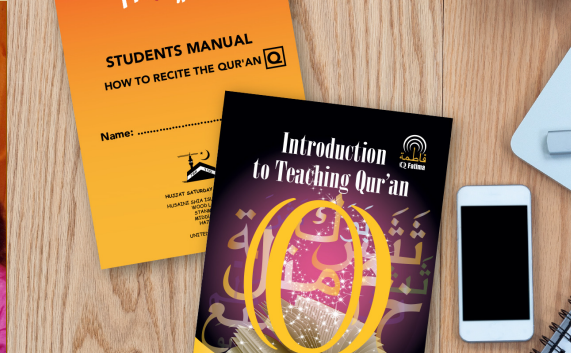

OUR JOURNEY BEGINS

Our journey began on the 9th of January 1991 with 4 teachers and 40 students at the Husaini Islamic Centre in Stanmore with Hujjat Saturday Workshop.

The aim was to reach our personal best with the guidance from the Qur'an and the Ahlulbayt.

Today Hujjat Saturday Workshop still runs with over 70 teachers and 350 students. It is the pilot institution for QFatima where all the materials are tried and tested.

1992

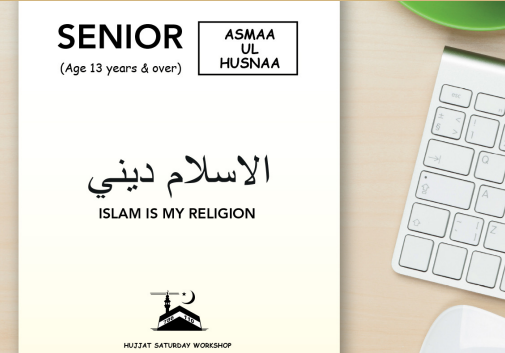

EDITION 01 OF QREAD

Following the split in Bosnia, Qur'an was introduced to the refugees in Trolhalten and produced in Serbskohrovstski. Later translated in English and simply called 'Q'.

This became first edition of Q Read.

1993

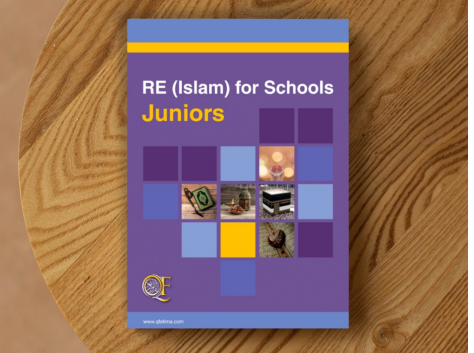

FIRST SET OF Q MANUALS

The first set of Q School manuals, called AL ISLAMU DEENIY (Islam is my religion)

10 Manuals – One per year group

1994
