FOCUS – DID YOU KNOW - BENEFITS

FOCUS

- Inability of the Makkans to accept the prophet because of his being human
- Characteristics of those who submit to the all compassionate

DID YOU KNOW

Furqaan literally means that which distinguishes (separates) right from wrong. It is also a name given to the Qur'an in the first verse.

Ayaat 63 to 77 provides a complete picture of the character of one who is connected to Divinity in all aspects of life.

BENEFITS

- No questioning
- No punishment if read at night
- Safety of possessions

NARRATIVE

The chapter begins with the accusations of the Makkans that the Qur'an was taught to him by a human being and he was repeating ancient stories. It highlights their objections to accept the Prophet because of his humanity such as his eating and walking in the market, not given any treasures and not accompanied by an angel. The Makkans also objected at why the Quran was not revealed all at once rather than gradually over years.

The Prophet's complain on the day of Judgement of the Qur'an taken as a forsaken word is mentioned in verse 30 followed by the rejection of Prophets Musa, Harun, Nuh, Hud, Salih and the messengers sent to the people of Rass by their communities.

The chapter ends with a description of how those who submit to Divinity should behave from living a life of humility, addressing ignorance with kindness to being family orientated.
